The Ancient History of the Distinguished Surname

* KIRK ****

Though shrouded by the mists of time, the chronicles of Scotland reveal the early records of the Norman surname Kirk which ranks as one of the oldest. The history of the name is interwoven within the colourful plaid of Scottish history and is an intrinsic part of the heritage of Scotland.

Diligent analysis by professional researchers using such ancient manuscripts as the Domesday Book (compiled in 1086 by William the Conqueror), the Ragman Rolls, the Wace poem, the Honour Roll of the Battel Abbey, the Inquisitio, the Curia Regis, Pipe Rolls, the Falaise Roll, tax records, baptismals, family genealogies, and local parish and church records shows the first record of the name Kirk was found in Cumberland where they were seated from very early times and were granted lands by Duke William of Normandy, their liege Lord, for their distinguished assistance at the Battle of Hastings in 1066 A.D.

Variable spellings of the name were typically linked to a common root, usually one of the Norman nobles at the Battle of Hastings. Your name, Kirk, occurred in many references from time to time, and variables included were Kirk, Kirkhoe, Kirkaugh, Kirko, Kirkoe, and many more. Scribes recorded and spelled the name as it sounded. It was not unlikely that a person would be born with one spelling, married with another, and buried with a headstone which showed another. Preferences for different spellings were derived from a branch preference, to indicate a religious adherence or sometimes to show nationalistic allegiance.

The family name Kirk is believed to be descended originally from the Norman race. The Normans were commonly believed to be of French origin but were, more accurately, of Viking origin. The Vikings landed in the Orkneys and Northern Scotland about the year 870 A.D., under their King, Stirgud the Stout. Later, under their Jarl, Thorfinn Rollo, they invaded France about 940 A.D. The French King, Charles the Simple, after Rollo laid siege to Paris, finally conceded defeat and granted northern France to Rollo. Rollo became the first Duke of Normandy. Duke William who invaded and defeated England in 1066, was descended from the first Duke Rollo of Normandy.

After the Conquest, Duke William took a census of most of England in 1086, it became known as the Domesday Book. By 1070, William's nobles were growing restive, dissatisfied with their grants of land. William took an army north, and laid waste most of the northern counties. King Malcolm Canmore of Scotland offered refuge to these nobles, granting them land. Later, King David, about 1160, also encouraged his Norman friends to come north to join the royal court and obtain lands.

The surname Kirk emerged as a notable Scottish family name in the county of Cumberland where they were recorded as a family of great antiquity seated with manor and estates in that shire. The original name Kirkhaugh was acquired by the Viponts, a noble family which came from Vipont near Lisieux in Normandy. In 1258 William of Kirkhaugh assumed that name and the lands and estates. They moved north into Scotland to the lands of Tuchadam and Chappel in the barony of Dunscore in Dumfriesshire. They later acquired the lands of Holywood and they intermarried with the Griersons of Barjarg and the name became shortened to Kirk and Kirke. Some branches of the name retained the name Kirkhoe. Sir Patrick Kirk of Perth had moved north and by 1600 even further north to Inveraray. They were registered as a border Clan in 1590 and in 1597. Of note amongst the family at this time was Sir Patrick Kirk of Perth.

The surname Kirk contributed much to local politics and in the affairs of England or Scotland. Later, in the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries the country was ravaged by religious and political conflict. The Monarchy, the Church and Parliament fought for supremacy. The unrest caused many to think of distant lands.

Settlers in Ireland became known as the "Adventurers for land in Ireland". Essentially, they "undertook" to keep the Protestant faith, and became known as "the Undertakers". In Ireland they were numerous in Ulster and county Louth and in the former became known as the Quirkes.

The news about the attractions of the New World spread like wildfire. Many sailed aboard the fleet of sailing ships known as the "White Sails".

In North America, migrants which could be considered kinsmen of the surname Kirk, or variable spellings of that same family name included Christopher and Judith Kirk settled in Virginia in 1635; Grafton Kirk settled in Maryland in 1738; John Kirk settled in New England in 1698; James Kirke settled in Virginia in 1656; Christopher Kirke settled in the Barbados in 1663; Richard and John Kirke settled in Virginia in 1651; Thomas Kirke settled in Virginia in 1638.

From the port of arrival many settlers joined the wagon trains westward. During the American War of Independence some declared their loyalty to the Crown and moved northward into Canada and became known as the United Empire Loyalists.

Meanwhile, the family name was noted in the social stream. There were many notables of this name, Kirk, Grayson Kirk, American Professor; Peter Kirk, British Journalist; Roger Kirk, American Diplomat; Russell Kirk, American Writer; Samuel Kirk, American Professor of Education; Dame Lucy Kirk; Alexander Kirk, U.S. Ambassador; Professor Geoffrey Kirk, Greek; Hon. Herbert Kirk, Northern Ireland Politician.

In the process of researching this distinguished family name we also traced the most ancient grant of Arms from the branches which developed their own Arms.

The most ancient grant of a Coat of Arms found was:

Red with a gold crozier crossed with a gold sword and at the top a green thistle.

The Crest was:

A crozier and a dagger crossed.

The ancient family Motto for this distinguished name was:

"Optimum Quod Primum"

A Little About the name "KIRK".

KIRK, KIRKE - Of local origin from residence near a kirk. Sir Patrick Kyrk, chaplain of the altar of S. Mary, Perth, 1456 (RAA., II, 107), Andrew Kyrk, witness at Arbroath, 1459 (ibid., 127), and Alexander Kirk, bailie of St. Andrews, 1520 (Stodard, II, p. 416). James Kirk, charter witness at Inveraray, 1608 (Poltalloch Writs, p. 143). The old Dumfriesshire surname of Kirkhoe is now merged in this name.

A LITTLE ABOUT THE WORD "KIRK"

According to The Random House Dictionary of the English Language, Second Edition unlimited the word Kirk is:

KIRK (Kurk, Scot. Kirk) noun

1) chiefly Scottish and North England, a church; 2) the Kirk, the church of Scotland (Presbyterian) as distinguished from the Church of England or the Scottish Episcopal Church (1150 - 1200; ME north and Scots.) (ON Kirkja church)

A LITTLE ABOUT THE KIRKS

On page 420 in "Of Artificial Things" it states:

"Mitres, crosiers, crosses, and keys, have made up the arms of several churches, churchmen, and laies too, who have had a dependence on the church, or from their names relative thereto, as those of the name of Kirk, who, in our old and modern books of arms, carry gules, a bishop's crosier or, with a sword saltier ways argent, and on a chief of the second, a thistle vert.

The last figure shows them to have been of a Scots extraction, and to have assumed the surname from the kirk, or church, probably upon account of some office belonging thereto.

Sir William Kirk is mentioned in the first book of Knox's History of the Reformation, (whom Petrie, in his Church History, Part II page 172 says he was a priest) and that he was the first, amongst many others, whom Cardinal Beaton summoned before him, in the Abbey-Kirk of Holyroodhouse, anno 1534, because he favoured the Reformation; but King James V. being there present, and interposing his authority, commanded Sir William to return to his former principles, to which he submissively acquiesced, and publicly burnt his bill.

He was brother to David Kirk, burgess of Edinburgh, whom the above John Knox, in his History, mentions to be slain, anno 1549, in Edinburgh, valiantly fighting with the Laird of Stenhouse, then provost thereof, who was defending the privileges of the town against the insults of some Frenchmen.

His son was Mr. James Kirk, writer in Edinburgh, father of Mr. John Kirk, writer there, whose son was Mr. James Kirk, minister at Aberfoyl in Perthshire. He had seven sons; the eldest, Mr. James, became minister at Balmaghie in Galloway, and his seventh and youngest son, Mr. Robert Kirk, became minister at Aberfoyl 1685. He was a man of good parts, he translated King David's Psalms with great exactness into Scottish and Irish verse, which the Privy Council, upon examination, highly approved of, and ordained the same to be printed, anno 1684.

He wrote also several other books handsomely: He died at Aberfoyl 14th of May 1692, being twice married, first to Isabel, daughter to Sir Colin Campbell of Monchaster, second son to Colin Campbell of Glenorchy, by whom he had Colin his eldest son: And by his second wife, a daughter of Campbell of Fondy, descended of the family of Lawers, he had Mr. Robert Kirk, minister at Dornoch.

Mr. Robert, the father, carried the above arms within a bordure indented argent; crest, a crosier and dagger saltier-ways: motto Optimum quod primum; as now used by his eldest son Colin Kirk, Writer to the Signet, who married Jean, second daughter to George Stirling of Herbertshire, of whose arms before. See Plate of Achievements.

Some of this name with us carry, in place of the crosier and sword saltier-ways, gules, on a saltier argent, a thistle slipped vert, and, on a chief of the second, three cushions azure; crest, a church, proper: motto Votis & Conamine, as by James Kirk, Merchant in Edinburgh. L. R.

There are several considerable families of the name of Kirk, in England, who carry other figures, as in Guillim's Display of Heraldry; by Sir John Kirk of Eastham in the county of Essex, descended from Sir David Kirk, who was Governor and proprietor of Newfoundland in America, carries parted per fessse, or and gules, a lozenge counterchanged, with a canton azure, thereon a lion supporting a cutlas, chained and collared argent; which canton was given as an augmentation to the said Sir David Kirk, and to Lewis Kirk, Governor of Canada, and to Captain Thomas Kirk, Vice-Admiral of the English Fleet, and to their descendants, for their good services done in encountering and vanquishing the French navy, and bring the admiral prisoner to England, and for taking the country of Canada, then belonging to the French, which was fortified by them; in which expedition the above Sir David took the governor, and brought him prisoner to England."

At this point, we have listed several Kirks, i.e., Sir William Kirk supposedly a priest; his brother David Kirk burgess of Edinburgh; David's son James Kirk writer in Edinburgh and father of Mr. John Kirk also a writer there; John's son James Kirk minister at Balmaghie in Galloway; and John's son Robert Kirk minister at Aberfoyl 1635; Robert's eldest son Colin Kirk Writer to the Signet; Robert's son Robert Kirk minister at Dornoch; and James Kirk merchant in Edinburgh. Also Sir David Kirk who was Governor and proprietor of Newfoundland in America; David's descendant John Kirk of Eastham in the county of Essex; Lewis Kirk Governor of Canada and Thomas Kirk Vice Admiral of the English Fleet.

The names listed above, i.e., William, David, James, John, Robert, Colin, Lewis and Thomas are the same names we find listed throughout our research from North Carolina westward to Tennessee where my great-great-grandfather (Henry) started his family, southernly to Mississippi where my great-grandfather (William) and my grandfather (Henry Benton) were born and southwest to Texas where my father (William who was better known as Bill) was born.

Another interesting tidbit of information that we picked up in our research was found in "The Origin and Signification of Scottish Surnames with a Vocabulary of Christian Names" by Clifford Stanley Sims. Some definitions for our names are: Benjamin - the son of the right hand; David - beloved; Ernest - earnest; Henry - a rich lord; James and Jacob - he that supplants; John - God's grace; Lewis - the safeguard of the people; Nathan - given; Robert - famous in council; Thomas - a twin; and finally, William - a defence of many.

I give you this bit of Scottish information because later on you will see that our family originally came from Scotland according to my great-grandfather's brother, Henry Hogan Kirk who was born in 1850.

HENRY KIRK

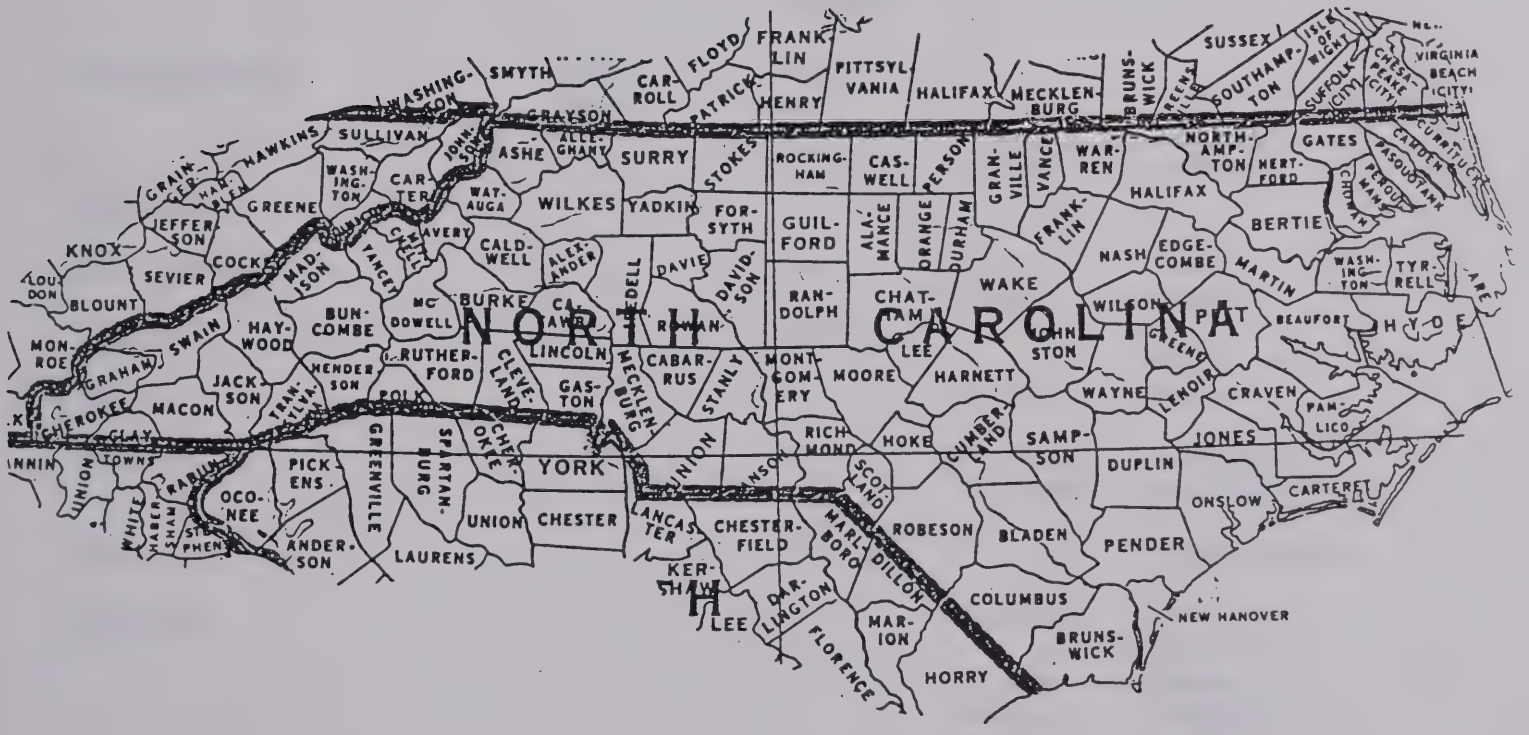
Although we can't tell you at this time exactly who the parents were of our Henry Kirk, we can tell you that according to numerous census records, Henry Kirk was born in North Carolina.

In North Carolina there were five Kirks who were "Head of Households" in the 1790 census, twelve in the 1800 census, seventeen in the 1810 census, twenty in the 1820 census and 20 still there in the 1830 census. In order to visualize the location of the numerous Kirks at this time, a map of North Carolina counties is shown below.



Out of these North Carolina census we found no Henry Kirk listed but that does not mean there were none during this period. Some people were afraid that being on the census records meant being taxed, and they avoided the census.

Actually listed for North Carolina's census are:

| COUNTY | 1790 | 1800 | 1810 | 1820 | 1830 |

| Stokes | | | | Daniel | |
| | | | | | David |
| | | | | Drury | Drury |
| | | | | George | George |
| | | | | Isaac | Isaac |
| | | | | Thomas | Thomas |

The mystery is - which one of these North Carolina Kirks, if any, is the father of our Henry Kirk?

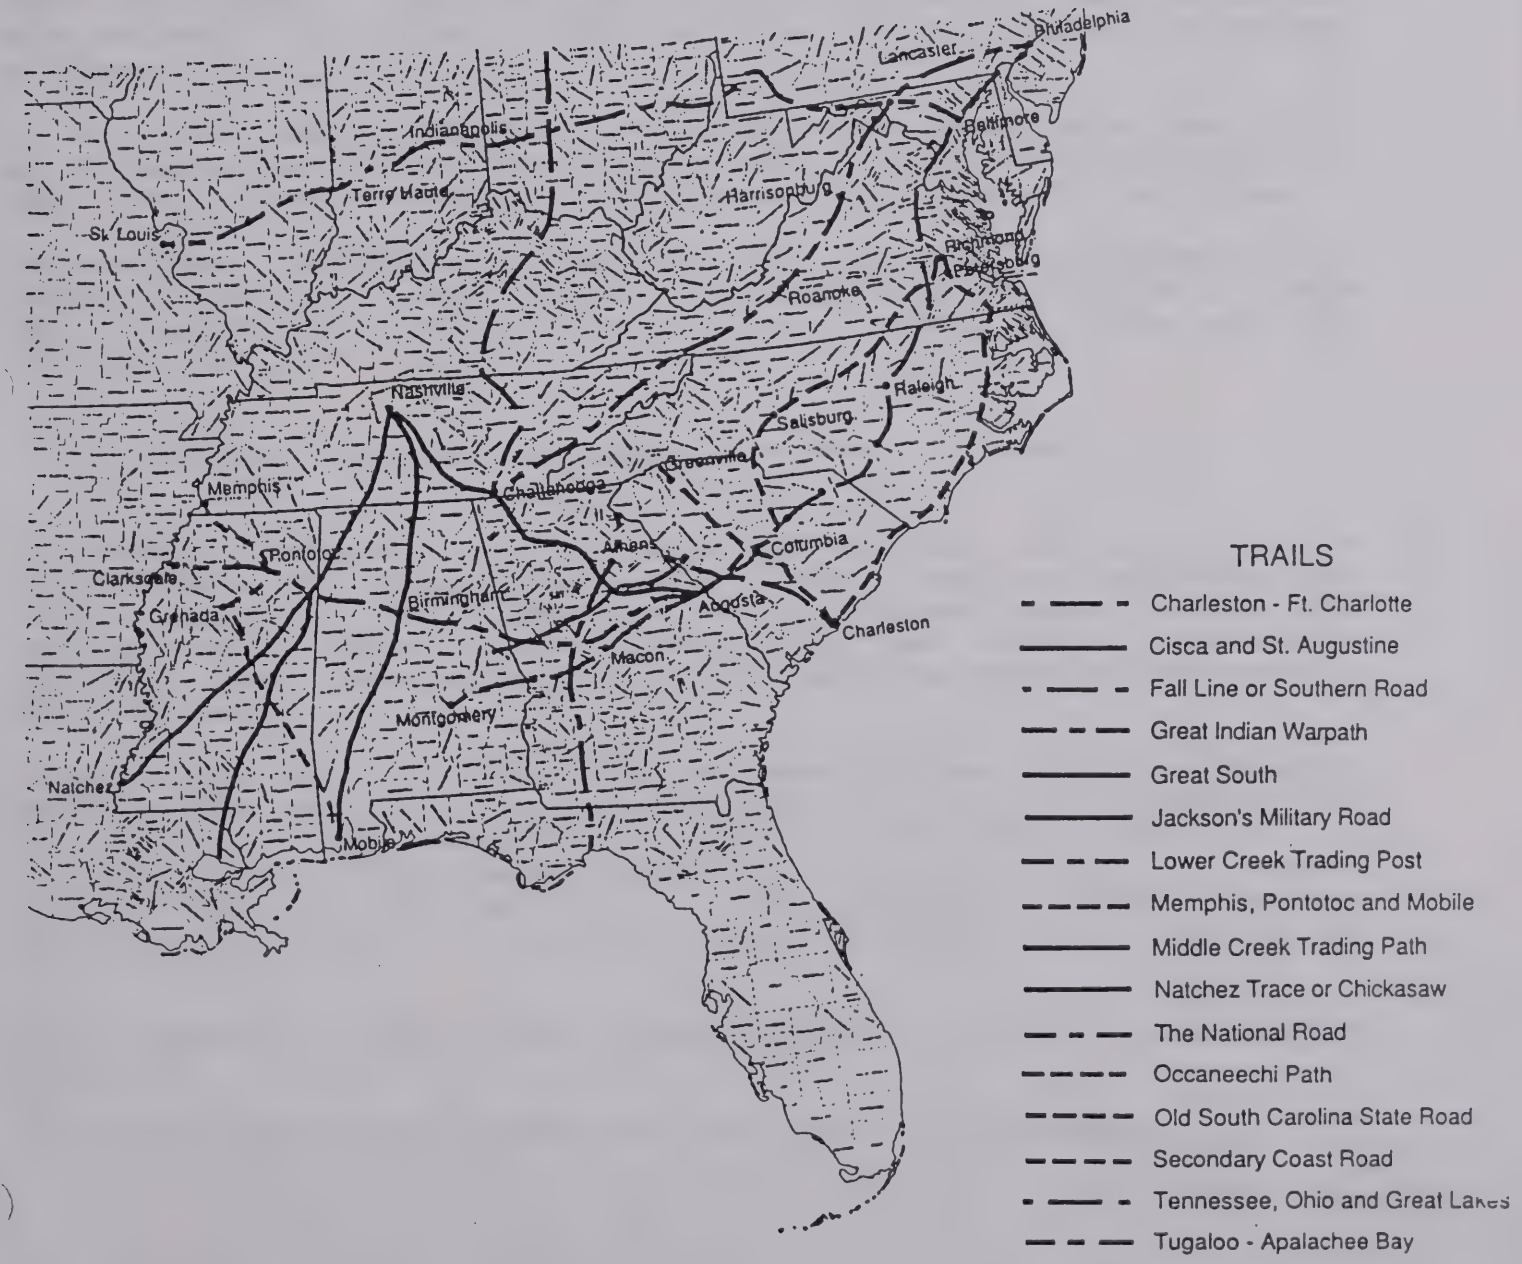
In the meantime, Henry grew up and was married to Harriet (surname unknown). They had their first three children in Tennessee with the first being born in approximately 1845.

Part of the mystery is:

Did Henry's family move to Tennessee while he was young?
Did Henry go to Tennessee alone?
with brothers? with cousins? with friends?

There is also a Henry Kirk listed in the state census of Choctaw County, Mississippi for 1841? Could our Henry have gone to Choctaw County, Mississippi, before going to Henderson County, Tennessee, and then return to Choctaw County, Mississippi for the 1860 census?

The mystery deepens! A map of the migration trails is below and maybe you can help find his route.



There were Kirks living in Tennessee before the census started. We found a John Kirk was granted one thousand acres of land in Davidson County, Tennessee as early as 1786. This was on Grant #119. Also, a John Kirk married Ann Pruet in Williamson County in 1807. In the first census of 1820, we found twenty Kirks in Tennessee listed as "Heads of Household". In the census of 1830 for Tennessee we found forty-six listed as "Heads of Household". If Henry moved with his family, possibly his father is listed among them.

Listed in the Henderson County, Tennessee census of 1830, M-19 Roll 4 page 86 line 7, we find a John Kirk listed with 2 males under 5, 1 between 10-15 and 1 between 30-40 while there are 1 female under 5, 2 between 10-15 and 1 between 30-40. Listed above him are John Howell and William Hall and below him are John Cooper and Samuel Temple.

There is also an Eleanor Kirk on page 116 line 20. Eleanor is listed as having 1 female between 20-30 and one between 70-80. I find this interesting because they were listed in Henderson County TN before our Henry was listed. Could we possibly tie in? Henry could be the one male between 10-15 listed with John Kirk. He could also be a brother of Eleanor Kirk.

At this time (1996), the first census where we have located Henry Kirk is in Henderson County, Tennessee in 1850. Information on Henry has been hard to come by since there is no middle or second name listed.

The earliest information on Henry to date is from the Henderson Co., Tennessee census of 1850, M-432, Roll 883, M-432, District 2, page 243, line 32, taken on September 6, 1850. Henry is listed with his wife, Harriet. It list:

Henry 31, Harriet 20, James 5, Amanda 3 and Henry H 1.

This means that Henry was born approximately 1819 and was listed as born in North Carolina. His wife, Harriet, was born approximately 1830 in Alabama. Their oldest son, James, was born approximately 1845 in Tennessee; their daughter, Amanda Ann, was born in Tennessee on August 4, 1847; their second son, Henry Hogan was born in Tennessee on June 19, 1850.

Listed around Henry on line 29 is William Williams, on line 30 Alexander Wright, on line 31 is the Armstrongs, on line 33 is Sarah Strain and on line 34 is James Strain. (Note: 1806 Adams County MS - In case 110, Drawer 68 for Adams County MS Tr. in 1806 there is a lawsuit with William Williams versa _____Kirk, brother of James. We have not determined if it is the same William Williams or if there is any relationship to us.)

Also happening at this time, "The Compromise of 1850" postponed the Civil War.

The most outstanding residents of the period in the county were Christopher H. Williams, Micajah Bullock, and John Purdy. Miles Darden, said to be the largest man of record, removed to the county from North Carolina, where he was born in 1798. At his death, January 23, 1857. he weighed a fraction over a thousand pounds. In 1845 he had weighed eight hundred seventy-one pounds; height seven feet and six inches. A tailor of Lexington made a coat for him which three men, each over two hundred pounds in weight, put on and buttoned around them. Until 1853 he was active and able to do farm labor; thereafter he had to be hauled about in a two-horse wagon. Reference is made that Rev. John Brooks, a neighbor, in an account in Jackson WHIG, Darden's wearing apparel is now an exhibit in the rooms of the Tennessee Historical Society at Nashville."

Isn't it amazing that this hugh gentlemen, Miles Darden, actually lived in Henderson County, Tennessee, at the exact same time that our great-great-grandfather, Henry Kirk, did and that he was born in the same state of North Carolina. Henry Kirk was listed as age 31 in 1850 and Miles Darden would have been 52 having been born in 1798.

Unlike today, at that time justice was harsh and swift!

According to the "Tennessee County History Series - Henderson County" by G. Tillman Stewart, it states "When the Henderson County Courthouse was built, a whipping post was placed in the yard where men were whipped publicly. Each offender was tied to the post, stripped to the waist, and received ten to thirty lashes with a bull whip from the sheriff. The sentence for the first offense of public drunkenness was ten lashes; second offense, twenty lashes; third offense, thirty lashes. There were few second offenders. The offender suffered physical torture as well as public derision. For nonsupport of his family, a man would receive thirty lashes in the presence of his family. If that was ineffective he was placed in stocks for an indefinite time. The stocks consisted of a three-legged stool on which the offenders sat; in front of the stool was a five-foot by five-foot wooden wall with holes in which the arms and feet were locked. These methods of justice were obviously cheaper for taxpayers than that of maintaining a jail.

The jail was primarily used for criminals who had committed murder or theft valued at more than fifty dollars. A person could be hanged for stealing either a horse or a mule. Drunkenness was a common offense since liquor was both cheap and legal."

In the 1850 census from Choctaw County, Mississippi, while Henry was in Tennessee, we find Kirks also living at Choctaw County. We mention this because this is where Henry is listed next. Listed in this census of Choctaw County, Mississippi, M-432, Roll 370, Western District page 13, line 176, is John W 34, Harriet 24, Mary F 3, Nancy E 2, and Martha V 6 months.

Our Henry Kirk had it rough in his period of growing up, moving west, starting and raising a family. Our next location of the family of Henry and Harriet Kirk was in Choctaw County, Mississippi, and things definitely did not get any better although Choctaw seemed like the perfect place to be.

Also in 1850, the "Compromise of 1850" postponed the Civil War.

According to Chapter 2 of the "Choctaw County Chronicles, A History of Choctaw County, Mississippi" by J. P. Coleman, "At sunrise on the morning of September 27, 1830, the Choctaw Indian tribe still owned twelve thousand square miles within the territorial limits of the state of Mississippi. This included all the land now in Choctaw and nineteen other counties. At sunset the tribe owned none. The treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek had been signed. It was agreed that the Choctaw would give up their lands in Mississippi and would be removed to territory between the Arkansas and the Red rivers in what came to be known as the Indian Territory. The removal was to be completed within three years." This means the removal was to have been completed twenty years before Henry and Harriet's child was born in Mississippi and twenty-seven years before Henry was listed in the 1860 census. This vast amount of land was just sitting there waiting for settlers. It seemed like the perfect place to be.

In Chapter 6, "The Third Decade 1850-1860" it states, "From the returns of the United States census for 1850 we gain some definite impressions of what Choctaw County was like at the beginning of the seventeenth year of its existence.

Of the 11,402 inhabitants, 4,430 were white males and 3,900 were white females, so it must have been a good place for a woman in search of a husband. There were 2,978 slaves and 4 freed black people. Sixty percent of the white residents had been born in states other than Mississippi. Forty-one inhabitants were born in foreign nations.

There were 890 white people over twenty years of age who were unable to read and write. There were 3,534 whites between the ages of five and twenty but only 406 of them were in school. There were no publicly supported schools in those days."

In approximately 1853, Henry and Harriet Kirk had their fourth child, William B. Kirk who was born in Mississippi. Also in 1853 Jefferson Davis was appointed as Secretary of War.

Around 1854-55, Henry and Harriet had their fifth child, Nancy Dove Kirk who was born in Mississippi also. It was during this period that one of the editors of the Choctaw Observer died of typhoid fever.

On September 18, 1857, the last child of Henry and Harriet was born. He was named Nathan Cockran Kirk and was born in Mississippi. This completed the family of Henry and Harriet Kirk. They must have prospered in Choctaw County, Mississippi because in the 1860 census, Henry's land is valued at $4000 and his personal assets are $950.

In this 1860 census of Choctaw County, Mississippi, which was taken on October 6, 1860 for the Stateland Post Office, page 242, line 10, we again find Henry listed.

Henry age 41 and Harriet age 31
James age 15, Amanda age 14, Henry Hogan age 11
William B age 7, Nancy Dove age 5 and Nathan Cockran age 3

Since Henry Hogan was born in Tennessee in 1850 and William B. was born in Mississippi and William B. was approximately three or four years younger than Henry Hogan, we assume that Henry moved Harriet and the children to Mississippi after September, 1850, and in or before 1853.

This 1860 census of Choctaw County, Mississippi lists Henry as a farmer from North Carolina. Harriet is listed as a "house mistress" born in Alabama. While Henry is listed on page 242, John is listed on page 264.

As you will note, the Henry and Harriet Kirk family is listed as in the Stateland Post Office district. Shown below is a map showing the location of Stateland. (It is not in existence today.)

On the following page there is a map of the counties in Mississippi which shows where Choctaw County is located.

MAP SHOWING MISSISSIPPI COUNTIES

Also in 1860, Abraham Lincoln was elected president.

In 1861, the Southern states seceded.

The Civil War had broken out.....

On page 69 of the "Choctaw County Chronicles" which quoted from the Southern Motive, it is stated, " From these papers we obtain a graphic picture of the wartime conditions prevailing in Choctaw County as the conflict drew near to a close. The newspaper editor wrote:

> Seldom a day passes but three or four ladies come to town to get a little meal or meat from the (relief) commissioner with which to feed their almost starved children. Frequently, they have to go home without either, for the commissioner had none. Meat is not to be had in Choctaw County. Two-thirds of the working class are in the army and their families are helpless.

The paper called for a meeting to be held in Greensboro on May 11 to see what could be done about the situation but the results are unknown.

Jason Niles, of Kosciusko, recorded in his diary for January 1, 1864, that the thermometer stood at 6 degrees above zero, a terrible situation for war wives and children without adequate clothing or shelter."

Page 83 states, "that the Choctaw County Courthouse at Greensboro was burned in 1865. He did not state the day or the month nor did he preserve the painful information of how the burning occurred."

This helps explain why it is so difficult to obtain information on birth, marriage and death records of some of our ancestors during and after the Civil War.

What a sad, difficult and almost impossible time our Henry must have endured just to live day to day and stay alive! But survive he did.

Sometime between 1861 and 1865 Henry moved his family to Marshall County, Mississippi, however, no additional piece of information has been found regarding Henry's first wife, Harriet, nor his oldest son, James. The entire family was in Choctaw County for the 1860 census, but on May 23, 1865, Henry married Martha Ruff in Tippah County, Mississippi so obviously, Harriet was not in existance.

Most of Henry and Harriet's children obtained their license at the court house in Holly Springs, Marshall County, Mississippi. Amanda Ann, William B., Nancy Dove and Nathan Cockran all obtained their marriage license in Marshall County; James has not been located; Henry Hogan obtained his in Benton County which is adjacent to Marshall County and Henry had obtained his in Tippah Co which is adjacent to Benton County. A picture of Marshall County court house of yesteryear and a picture of the court house of 1995 are on pages 18 and 19.

HENRY HOGAN KIRK

BENNIE BOATWRIGHT

HENRY HOGAN IS THE SON OF HENRY KIRK
BENNIE IS THE DAUGHTER OF MARTHA RUFF

HENRY AND MARTHA MARRIED MAY 23, 1865

On May 21, 1866, in Marshall County Mississippi, Amanda Ann Kirk married and is listed in the 1870 census as living next door to Henry. The 1870 census of Marshall County Mississippi was taken in July and for Holly Springs Post Office, page 463 we find:

Henry 53, Martha 53, Henry Hogan 20,
William 18 and Nancy 16, N C 13

James, Amanda and Harriet are not listed in the household. As stated above, Amanda was married and living next door, but we have been unable to trace James and Harriet at this point but the search goes on.

Accumulation facts on Henry:

On September 6, 1850, Henderson Co. TN., Henry is listed as 31.
On October 6, 1860, Choctaw Co. MS., Henry is listed as 41.
In July, 1870, Marshall Co. MS., he is listed as 53.
On the 1880 census, his wife is listed as a widow

For any of this information to be correct, we must assume that he was born between 1817-1819. Henry is not listed on census after 1870. The story goes....."He died and was buried in Henderson County Tennessee." Another story was "he got sick, died and is buried in Marshall County with no headstone." Neither story has been verified. He was alive in 1860 and 1870 but hasn't been located in 1880.

We do, however, know that Henry was alive in 1877 and living in Cornersville because Barry Kirk, (grandson of James Burtis Kirk who was a son of Henry Hogan Kirk, the third child of Henry) has in his possession the original of Henry Kirk's charge account at the general store and it is dated 1877. Interesting facts appeared on this charge account of Henry. On April 10, 1877 nine pounds of coffee purchased for Nathan, Henry's youngest son. On May 5, 1877 3 soda for Billie (Billie Ruff appeared on the charge account for Hogan and is assumed to be a relative of Martha, Henry's wife). On July 23, 1877 a purchase was made for 2 pair of hinges for the Salem Church. A copy of this charge account is on page 23.

It is interesting to point out that in "Holly Springs Mississippi To The Year 1878" by William Baskerville Hamilton and published by the Marshall County Historical Society page 49 states "The population of the town when the fever set in was 3500. During the epidemic it was 1500; 300 whites and 1200 blacks. Two thousand people had fled the city". It also states, "In the streets there was no sound save perhaps the frantic clatter of horses hoof, as someone rode in from the country to implore the attendance of a doctor, or the rapid roll of the hearse's wheels as a corpse, followed by no mourners, was borne to the grave." Further on there was "A Partial List of the Victims of Yellow Fever in Holly Springs During the Fall of 1878". Henry is not listed among this partial list but perhaps he too fell victim

On the 1880 census of Marshall County, Mississippi, Martha Kirk is listed as a widow on line 26. William and his wife, Amanda; Henry Hogan and his wife Alice and their children are listed starting on line 29.

It was told by Henry Hogan Kirk in later years to Pauline Kirk, granddaughter of Henry Hogan and daughter-in-law of James Burtis Kirk, that the Kirks came from Scotland to the Carolinas, to Tennessee and that his father, Henry Kirk and Henry's brother, John, came on to Mississippi with Henry stopping off in Marshall County while John went on down to the Mississippi Deltas and another brother left and went on down toward Texas. This was told to me by Sue Bruce Kirk Coffey who lived as a neighbor to Paul and Pauline Kirk and who was also a daughter-in-law of James Burtis Kirk as she was married to Riley Cooper Kirk.

Could the John W Kirk in Choctaw County, Mississippi in 1850 be the brother?

Could the Henry on the state census for Choctaw County in 1841 be our Henry?

Could the John who was in Henderson County, Tennessee, in 1830 be the father?

The answers will come eventually but when.....

Although it must have been a tremendous struggle just to survive during Henry's lifetime, he contributed a lot to this country. He raised six children, five of which we have been able to trace almost to date, 1996. We have in no way completed our research but, we have met so many fine people who are either directly or indirectly "Kirk" that it has really made us proud to be a part of this branch of the family. We were proud of our branch of the family which spent most of their lives in Texas; now that we have met so many Mississippi and Tennessee Kirks, we are doublely proud to be Kirks.

Henry and Harriet Kirk started a family of hard working, Christian people who may be Scottish in origin but whose roots have been firmly transplanted and are proud to be Americans.

Questions:

What happened to the first wife and mother of the children, Harriet Kirk, between 1861-1865 during the Civil War?

What happened to the oldest son during this same period?

Where is Henry buried? He evidently died 1877 - 1880. The typhoid epidemic was in 1878.

Where is Martha buried? She is listed on the 1880 census but no record of her after this time.

JAMES KIRK

James Kirk is the oldest son and the oldest child of Henry and Harriet Kirk and was born in Tennessee approximately in 1845 and probably in Henderson County.

James was listed in the 1850 census of Henderson County, Tennessee, along with his parents, Henry & Harriet Kirk and again on the 1860 census of Choctaw County Mississippi.

On 1850, Henderson County, Tennessee, it shows: Henry 31, Harriet 20, James 5, Amanda 3, Hogan 1

Amanda was born on August 4, 1847, and Henry Hogan on June 19, 1850, so I assume all were born in Tennessee (probably Henderson County) with James approximate date of birth being 1845.

On the 1860, Choctaw County Mississippi, Stateland Post Office, which was taken on October 6, it shows:

Henry 41, Harriet 31, James 15, Amanda 14,
Henry Hogan 11, William 7, Nancy D 5, Nathan 3.

The family of Henry & Harriet Kirk was now complete.

James was listed under "Profession, Occupation, or Trade of Each Person over 15 years of age" as a "farm laborer" and his place of birth is shown as Tennessee. Amanda is listed as 14 and she was born on August 4, 1847 which means she had just turned 14 in August before the October census. James was listed here as 15 which further indicates he had to have been born in/around 1845 assuming the ages are listed correctly in the census.

James does not show up living in the household with Henry in the 1870 census of Marshall County Mississippi, nor does Amanda, however, Amanda married in 1866.

Additional details are unavailable on James at this time.

AMANDA ANN KIRK

Amanda Ann Kirk is the second child and the first daughter of Henry and Harriet Kirk. She was born in Tennessee on August 4, 1847, possibly in Henderson County.

Amanda Ann Kirk is listed on the 1850 census of Henderson County, Tennessee along with her parents, Henry & Harriet Kirk. The census shows: Henry 31, Harriet 20, James 5, Amanda 3 and Hogan 1

She is listed next in the 1860 census of Choctaw County, Mississippi, Stateland Post Office. This census was taken October 6th and shows: Henry 41, Harriet 31, James 15, Amanda 14, Henry Hogan 11, William 7, Nancy D 5, Nathan 3. This completed the Henry Kirk family.

Amanda Ann moved to Marshall County, Mississippi, with her family between 1861 and 1865. Handwritten in on her marriage license to Gideon O. Long, it states "The parties married by this license are Gideon O. Long and Amanda Ann McGuin who was before her first marriage, Amanda Ann Kirk, on the application for license the original name was given to the clerk." At this time we have been unable to locate records for the first marriage of Amanda Ann Kirk. When Amanda married the second time, she was only seventeen so she must have been extremely young when the first marriage took place.

Amanda Ann Kirk married Gideon O Long on May 21, 1866, eleven weeks before Amanda's eighteenth birthday. Gideon O Long had turned thirty-two having been born on April 1, 1834. A copy of this marriage license is included on the following page.

On the 1870 census of Marshall County, Mississippi, Amanda is listed above her father, Henry Kirk, in another household which shows G C Long, age 35, and Mandy A Long, age 23.

On the 1880 census of Marshall County, Mississippi, which was recorded on February 2, 1881, page 13, supervisors district 1, enumerator 101, W. A. Young, #606, in the Village of Wall Hill, Amanda Ann, age 40, and Gideon O Long, age 52, are listed with one son, Lee, age 8.

On the 1910 census of Marshall County, Mississippi, Beat 5, Sheet 4B, line 51, which was taken April 21 & 22 we find Gideon was 76, Amanda was 62 and both listed as being born in Tennessee. Gideon Long was listed as a farmer. It also states they had nine children and none were living at the time of the census.

Gideon O Long died on August 22, 1919 and is buried at the Cornersville Cemetery, Marshall County, Mississippi.

Amanda Ann Kirk Long died on January 5, 1929 and is also buried at the Cornersville Cemetery, Marshall County, Mississippi, however, they are buried on different hills. Rumor has it that seven stakes were around Amanda's plot and these stakes represented the seven children that died young. Two others reached the age of 21, however, we have only located one. Birth records of the children have not been verified and no stakes were around the cemetery plot in May, 1995.

Pictures of the headstones of both Amanda Ann (Kirk) Long and Gideon O. Long are on the following pages.

In our trip to Mississippi in May of 1996 we learned that Gideon and Amanda Long had lived in the "Swain" house. A picture of this house is below:
